

Preliminary General Plan for Albany

PRELIMINARY GENERAL PLAN, ALBANY, California.

This is the final form of the preliminary general plan for Albany which will be the subject of public hearings at Planning and Zoning and Council levels. The plan may be changed before adoption.

HERE IS STEP BY STEP PROCEDURE FOR ADOPTING GENERAL PLAN

The sections of State Law governing the adoption of a Master or General Plan may be described as follows:

1. The City Planning Commission holds a public hearing in accordance with the law. Notice is given in a newspaper of general circulation of the time and place of the hearing 10 days before the hearing.

2. Inasmuch as this is the first time the City of Albany is adopting a General Plan, it is necessary for the City Planning Commission to hold two public hearings. The procedure described in 1. is repeated and a second public hearing is held.

3. After the public hearings are held and closed, the City Planning Commission makes a recommendation to the City Council. It can recommend the adoption of the plan as it has been prepared up to this point, or it can make modifications in it and recommend the modified plan to the City Council.

4. The City Council holds a public hearing similar to those held by the Planning Commission, giving notice of the time and place of the public hearing at least 10 days before the public hearing.

5. The City Council closes its public hearing and can take the following course of action:

a. It can adopt the General Plan as submitted to it by the City Planning Commission.

b. It can suggest amendments in the General Plan as a result of the testimony and its findings at public hearing. If it elects to make amendments, then the law requires that the City Council indicate what changes it desires to be made and refers the plan back to the City Planning Commission for consideration. The City Planning Commission upon receiving recommendations from the City Council can consider these changes and as required by law it reports within 40 days after the reference from the City Council. The law does not specify that the City Planning Commission hold additional public hearings. It is at the option of the City Planning Commission whether they desire to hold additional public hearings. Some city Planning Commissions have and others have not.

6. If the City Planning Commission elects to make changes along the lines recommended by the Council, it does so and reports to the Council. On the other hand, if it elects to make no changes, it can say so and report back to the City Council.

7. The Council receives the report from the City Planning Commission and is now able to adopt a General Plan. It can be modified along the lines it has suggested to the City Planning Commission, or it can at this time adopt the original plan.

This is an interpretation of the procedure as spelled out in the State Law. The State Law provides an opportunity for any person who wishes to be heard on at least three (3) public hearings. What is important to remember is that the General Plan is a policy guide for the legislative body and also for private property owners and developers for the future growth and development of the City of Albany. It is not a zoning ordinance map. It may provide guidance for changes in the zoning ordinance text and zoning ordinance map. However, as Mr. Ruth, the planning consultant has stated many times in the past, the General Plan for Albany should not be used to transfer zoning districts directly from the General Plan map.

Where's The Fire?

Albany Fire Department calls: June 25, pier fire, Golden Gate Fields, five fires extinguished.

June 25, garage fire, C. Colvin, 718 San Carlos, possibly child-caused, extinguished.

June 26, washdown, Marin-Kains auto accident, car belonging to Michael Hern, 1023 Santa Fe, ruptured gas tank. Fireman Don Day cut finger.

June 27, public service, 1203 Portland, Mrs. Gutridge reported leak in refrigeration unit, moved refrigerator outdoors.

June 28, false alarm, Washington and Pomona, found responsible teenagers.

June 28, inhalator, 711 Curtis, Robert Rydman, 1 1/2.

June 29, public service, rear of race track, fished bicycle from the bay.

High Lights Of Council Agenda

Albany City Council met last night because of the legal holiday Monday, July 5. The Times was unable to cover the session, but here are high lights from the agenda:

California State Automobile association announcing Albany has received a Pedestrian Safety citation in the 26th annual AAA program;

Pacific Turf club requesting permission to enlarge the north parking lot;

Myrtle J. McLean, city assessor, submitting preliminary assessed valuations for 1965-66 for equalization;

James B. Turner, administrative officer, reporting on the dump and status of a retirement system for non-uniformed employees;

Kathryn B. Warren in another complaint against the noise at the Lucky 13;

A public hearing on a request of William Van Pelt that property at 630 Masonic Avenue be rezoned from R-1 to R-3 for construction of a six unit apartment building.

A discussion of the wood pile on San Pablo was also on the agenda.

Oh, Dear--Deer in Albany

A deer was spotted in the area of Marin and Evelyn early July 1 and took the combined forces of Albany police, Berkeley police and Berkeley Humane to herd the animal to the comparative peace and quiet of Live Oak park.

On four occasions, police report, the deer fled into yards and hid. At 1837 Cedar, it ran into the side of a parked car, jumped on the hood and broke the ornament.

Albany Woman Hospitalized By Collision

Mrs. Linda Campana of 1152 Marin is a patient at Alta Bates Hospital following a two-car collision at Masonic and Dartmouth about 10 a.m. last Friday. She suffered neck and hip injuries.

She was taking her two children and Polly and Brad Allen of 930 The Alameda to Day Camp when her vehicle was struck by one driven by Tsutomu Ben Sumimoto of 1252 Portland, who was cited by Albany police for failure to yield the right of way.

The right front light, hood and grill of the Campana auto were damaged, but it was not necessary to tow the vehicle.

Albany Lowest In Assessed Valuation Increases

Supervisor Kent D. Pursel called in both bad and good news Tuesday morning.

According to the county assessors figures, the county assessment roll for fiscal 1965-66 is one billion, 634 million, an increase of 5.99 per cent or $92,392,418 over last year.

If these figures hold, Pursel said, the Board of Supervisors may be able to trim two cents from the county tax rate. That's the good news.

On the dark side is Albany's .53 increase in assessment, by far the least increase of any city in the county. Pursel said the acquisition of so much property by Rapid Transit in Albany is undoubtedly the reason our town has failed to keep pace with increases elsewhere. Albany's assessment for '65-'66 is $17,939,875, up only $99,550 from last year's $17,844,325.

Pleasanton assessments show a 35.94 per cent increase; Livermore has 18.21 per cent. Berkeley, also hard hit by Rapid Transit, is up only 3.19 per cent, Pursel reported.

Those who can show their assessment is unfair have until 5 p.m. July 14 to file to appear before the Board of Supervisors when it sits as a Board of Equalization, the supervisor noted. The clerk of the board has forms.

RECORD CROWDS ENJOY ALBANY'S CELEBRATION

Recreation Director E. L. (Bud) Rooney Tuesday reported record-breaking attendance at Albany's Fourth of July celebration July 5 in Memorial Park.

"Not only was the attendance way up, but the participation in all activities and contests was terrific," Rooney said.

According to Golden Gate Fields officials, the north parking lot holds 5,000 automobiles. Police Chief Ralph Jensen estimates that somewhere between 2,500 and the maximum number of cars were there for the fireworks Monday night. Other motorists jammed into vantage points, particularly on Albany Hill. For many, it was disappointing because the fireworks disappeared in dense fog.

Chairman Ruth Tripodi said $586 was collected in donations and/or refreshment contributions Monday night. Previously about $625 had been contributed, so the $1,000 necessary to pay for the fireworks was raised. Mrs. Tripodi said the pyrotechnicians had tried about 7 p.m. to get the committee to cancel the fireworks because of fog, but the committee decided to go ahead.

Mrs. Tripodi has asked the Times to thank everyone who worked on or contributed to the Chamber of Commerce-sponsored fireworks. Among late donations were $25 from post 292, American Legion, and $50 from Michael Borelli.

The sky-diving had been cancelled Friday because of high costs of insurance, but Mrs. Tripodi said it would have been (Continued on Page 3)

My Word!

ALBANY HAD a glorious 4th of July. Thanks to the Recreation Department and the Chamber of Commerce, the day was jam-packed with activity. Too bad there wasn't more seating at the pool for the Athens Water Babies. Many who wanted to see couldn't squeeze in. Memorial Park was jumping all day. Then everyone in the East Bay (it seemed) crowded Albany Hill, Solano and the parking lots of Golden Gate Fields to try to see the fireworks. The fog cut visibility, but that was beyond committee control.

IN CASE YOU'VE lost Payless Cleaners, Helene Fearn would like you to know the business is now located at 913A San Pablo, part of Mary's and Joe's.

THEY'LL BE burning off Albany Hill July 27-30, the fire ladies report. Anyone who wishes to burn off his own property between July 15 and August 5 may do so with a permit secured from the Fire Department.

OFFICER JIM SIMMONS reported that half the parking lot at Golden Gate Fields and much of Albany Hill were full Sunday night with people waiting for the fireworks, which those who read the Times should have known were Monday night.

ANN LOTT, popular real estate woman, has opened a new office at 1533 Solano Avenue, across from Bank of America. Her son, Martin, is associated with her in the business. She invites all her friends to stop by.

ONE OF THE Albany policemen in uniform and gold helmet directing traffic at the fireworks display Monday night was none other than himself, Police Chief Ralph Jensen. He had three reserves and four regulars work-

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jacobsen

Joyce Catherine Krasovich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Krasovich of 610 San Carlos, recently became the bride of John Thomas Jacobsen of Treasure Island, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Jacobsen of Racine, Wis., in rites at St. Jerome's Catholic church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of chantilly with fitted basque bodice and lilypoint sleeves. Graduated tiers of ruffles on the skirt ended in a sweeping train. Her veil of silk illusion fell from a pearl and crystal crown and she carried white orchids caught with orchid ribbon.

Mrs. Judy Mondot of Pleasant Hill was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Ione Hotey and Margo Patterson, both of Albany. All wore identical frocks and carried carnations and orchids.

Best man was Douglas Burger of Oakland. Ushers were James Krasovich and Michael Hern of Albany.

During the reception at the Brazilian Room in Tilden Park, the bride's mother received guests wearing a blue crepe sheath with overblouse of sequins. Both had pink orchid corsages.

Following a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the couple is at home at 541 Chetwood St., Oakland.

The bride, graduate of Albany High School and former president of Theta Theta Delta, is employed in the Oakland office of Equitable Life. Her husband graduated from William Horlick high school in Racine and is with the U.S. Navy.

Albany Lab Group Honored For Distinguished Work

The U.S. Department of Agriculture's highest award, for Distinguished Service, has come to a group in the Albany laboratory for making wool garments machine-washable without significant shrinkage.

Their work has been judged outstanding as a contribution to increased industrial usefulness of a farm product. The Albany lab, officially called The Western Utilization Research and Development Division of USDA's Agricultural Research Service, conducts a broad research program on new and improved uses of crops.

In the new wool treatment fabric or wool prior to spinning is immersed first in one solution, and then squeezed, and then in another, followed by squeezing and washing. A reaction takes place, following the second immersion, that anchors a thin deposit of resin on the fibres. This deposit is so thin that fabric weight is increased only about one percent. No heating or other treatment is required.

The resin film protects the fabric against shrinkage during the tumbling and turbulence of machine laundering, increases the wear life, and reduces the tendency for the fabric to "pill." The warm feeling, resilience, and other fine qualities of the wool remain intact.

JEROME BLANK REALTY

THERE'LL BE A HOT TIME!

Well, the 4th is over, and we're well into summer, but it did bring back a few memories of the noisy 4th of Albany's early days. Who can ever forget the solid block of fireworks stands in front of the old ramshackle frame buildings on San Pablo at the County line, next to the Chinese grocery store that sold exotic ginger and coconut candies? Or the sight of the city on the morning after with the remains of firecrackers, sparklers & "snakes", overflowing the foot high wooden gutter boards onto the sidewalk. And who remembers the time that the fireworks stand caught on fire? That was the greatest fireworks display in history until World War II. Remember too the tin cans blasted 50 or 100 feet in the air by young explosive experts, who found early that silver powdered firecrackers had twice the "lift" of the cheaper black powdered ones. Well, as parents, we're certainly relieved that we don't have to worry about our children being injured with fireworks. All we have to worry about is traffic, smog, war, and the stock market. These worries we can handle!

MODEST TALBOT HOME

We make no pretensions of this being a "great" home. It's merely a good solid 2 bedroom frame home with an excellent Mansville life-time siding. A beautiful 60x100 lot (with great future due to zoning). Located right next to one of Albany's finest $40,000 homes. Just a few doors from Cornell School, north of Solano. So you think you can find a better buy than this for $17,500? Evenings, Mr. Williams, LA 6-3819.

THIS IS FIRST TIME!

You've never read this ad before, because the home is newly listed. This fine stucco home not only has a lifetime Textco-aluminum exterior, but it has 3 bedrooms and 2 baths on the main floor, plus a basement rumpus room or 4th bedroom, plus workshop, and large garage. Also a new central heating plant and excellent garden. In same block as Cornell School. All this for $23,950. Evenings, Mr. Williams, LA 6-3819.

KENSINGTON SCHOOL TIME!

A lovely 4 bedroom stucco, homey and charming, the kind that maple furniture fits so well, right off Colusa Circle. A lovely modern bathroom, vanity, central heat, exceptionally well-kept garden, all these add to the value at the reduced price of $22,950. Nothing down on GI, small down on FHA or conventional loans. Evenings, Mr. Headington, 524-7796.

YOU'LL BE SORRY!

If you ever see what a terrific value you can buy for $26,500, you won't settle for less home than this lovely 3 bedroom 2 bathroom ranch home with sweeping semi-circular driveway. Such features as used brick trim, inside barbecue pit, an electric kitchen with everything your heart desires, a raised hearth fireplace, 60x100 lot, and a suburban location of the future. We'd like to bet that this home will go up several thousand dollars in value within the next few years. Yet minimum down payment terms can handle it. Evenings, Mrs. Wise, 223-8785.

SECLUDED STREET

This lovely short street of attractive homes, contains a marvelous 3 bedroom stucco with a large family room, opening onto a fenced garden. Its modern, has excellent features, inside entrance to garage, and is near schools, Food Farm Shopping center. At $22,950, a best buy. Evenings, Mrs. Nunez, 524-0776.

Adult Education Offers Variety of Courses

Edward Johnson, summer principal of Albany Adult Education, has announced details of courses currently offered in the summer session, which opened yesterday.

Several music classes are open to adults or young students who are entering grades eight through 12. A piano workshop is offered from 1 to 4 p.m. Wednesdays and from 7 to 10 p.m. Mondays. Womens chorus is 7 to 10 Wednesdays. Philip F. Elwood, director of jazz programming for Pacifica radio, offers "Jazz and American Society" Tuesdays and Thursdays, 7:30 to 10. All music classes are at Albany high school, 603 Key Route Blvd.

Monday and Wednesday evenings, 7:30 to 10, the Adult School offers a beginning class in real estate, designed to assist those preparing for the state license exam or property owners and managers. The class will be at the high school building and students may register during their first session.

Camera Club Adds Another Trophy to Its Shelf

Members of Albany Camera club have added another award to their trophy shelf at the Veterans' Memorial building, where they hold their meetings. The latest trophy they proudly display was awarded to them for achieving second place honors in competition with 20 other Northern California camera clubs at the 17th Annual Photography Day at Stern Grove in San Francisco.

The Albany Camera club shuttled to their photography booth or "set," depicting a parlor of the "Gay Nineties," complete with furniture and accessories of that period. Members of the amateur photography group, attired in authentic costumes, took turns as "models" at the all-day affair.

Thousands of interested spectators, professional and amateur photographers, and judges viewed and filmed the activities at the Annual Photography Day which was sponsored jointly by the San Francisco Recreation Department and the Northern California Council of Camera Clubs.

Individual members also brought honor to Albany Camera club by having some of their best photographic efforts of the past year accepted for showing during the day.

Karl Dahlgren, president of Albany Camera club, announces the following winners in the May monthly club competition, judged by Les Mecum of Alameda:

B Group: Esther Gilman (2), Al Malm, and Mabel Nelson; A Group: Robert Nelson, Floyd Gilman, Iola Hamilton, and Marian Waters; AA Group: Al Hevonen, Jim Shepard, Lillian Malm, Elmer Nelson, and Carl Waters; Specials (modern architecture): Elmer Nelson, Al Haven, Jack Hamilton, Clement Ralph, and Iola Hamilton.

VEW AUXILIARY

Emeryville Industrial auxiliary 1010 Veterans of Foreign Wars, will hold its first whist of the new year on July 7 in the Emeryville Veterans Bldg. at 8 p.m. The new chairman, Marie Woodyard, will be unable to take over on her first whist so Dottie Heintz, now president of the auxiliary, will fill in. Free refreshments will be served.

EMPHYSEMA--IT CAN TAKE YOUR BREATH AWAY

The name of the ailment is Emphysema. It's not only one of the hardest to pronounce (try it this way: Em-fiz-EEM-uh), but doctors are now calling it one of the toughest to avoid after a certain age. For men, at any rate.

If it seems surprising, consider the work of Dr. Albert Roberts, chief of the Cardiopulmonary (heart-lung) Disease Division of the U.S. Public Health Service. He estimated recently that nine out of 10 American men over 45 have at least a "slight" case of emphysema. Between one and two million persons have the disease in severe form, he says. Women are the lucky ones: emphysema attacks a far higher proportion of men.

Like a quiet marauder, the disease comes on slowly and sneakily. It attacks and breaks down the numerous little air sacs and tiny blood vessels of the lung. Result: the lung loses its elasticity. Its ability to get rid of stale, used-up air is impaired. The breathing process may become a desperate struggle, often a painful one until it can no longer function—and death results.

Exactly what causes emphysema isn't known. A chronic cough and undue shortness of breath are typical symptoms. It's apt to follow a long succession of colds with cough, or pneumonia, or chronic bronchitis. Cigarette smoking, while not a proved cause of emphysema, is usually found to have been a long-standing habit with those that have the disorder.

No cure is known, either. But a lot can be done to make the sufferer more comfortable, enable him to breathe better with the equipment he has, and help him keep to a reasonably normal way of life—if the condition is detected in time. Your Christmas Seal Association, which fights all respiratory diseases including emphysema and TB, suggests that you have a doctor look you over if a cough refuses to go away or shortness of breath sets in.

McAuley Issues Easter Seal Reminder

A reminder about a little envelope that's probably tucked away in some corner or drawer, will be sent to Alameda County residents today — by the Easter Seal Society.

"Just in case you've mislaid your Easter Seal or thought it was too late to make your annual contribution," said William McAuley, Albany chairman for the annual Easter Seal campaign, "we want to let everyone know that we're still counting on hundreds of local residents to help us meet our county-wide goal of $80,000."

More than 265,000 small packets containing the traditional blue and white Easter Seals were mailed to Alameda County residents during mid-March.

Rose, Henry Ramirez Win Dance Contest

An Albany brother and sister team have danced their way into first place in the first dance contest held at the Lucky 13 Teen Club, Albany.

Outdancing 10 other couples, Rose and Henry Ramirez, 1016 Key Route Blvd. came out the winners. Rose was presented with a $100 certificate for a diamond ring, and Henry received a complete sports outfit, including shirt, tie, sports jacket and slacks.

The contest, conducted over a period of approximately 3 months, was the first of many contests planned for the Teen Club.

The club will also be open every Wednesday night during the summer, between the hours of 8 p.m. and midnight.

Plea from a Mother

I have before me a picture of a dead child, killed by a car in the street. It could be your child. Or, Mr. or Mrs. Thoughtless, late for an exam, a class or an appointment, you could have been the one who sped and hit him.

It is summer time when children are outdoors with their carefree thoughts and laughter. They are so full of the joy of life that they run, sometimes without caution, chasing balls into streets or just dashing to join playmates.

Because I am interested in keeping my children and other children alive, I beg drivers to slow down on city streets, particularly in University Village.

While it must be horrible to lose a child by such an accident, I am sure the guilty driver could never erase the scared, screaming, childish face as a child is dashed to eternity beneath the wheels of his car.

When the speed limit is 15, do you go 25 or 30? Do you realize it takes 105 feet or five car lengths to stop when you are driving 35 miles per hour? Are your appointments so urgent that you cannot afford to exercise caution to save a young life? It is worth being a little late to avoid the risk of killing or maiming a child. Please slow down so our children may live!

Albany Police Aid Indictment Of Former Police Sergeant

A case under investigation by members of Albany Police department since last Feb. 17 has resulted in an indictment by the Alameda County grand jury of Clifford J. Locke, 35, El Cerrito private detective, on charges of selling securities without a license.

Albany Police Inspector Art Smith was notified by two local residents last February that they had given money to Locke for his Check-Stop firm in the Plaza Professional building in Albany.

They were to receive their money back in a limited time and never did.

Smith said it was established that Locke misrepresented the dealings in violation of the corporate securities code. Investigation revealed that a number of other people had invested in the same company without return on their investment.

Locke, a one-time San Pablo police sergeant, has obtained more than $100,000 from persons who invested in his Check-Stop firm, Smith said. Ironically, he is well-known to most members of the Albany department and frequently visited at headquarters. Inspector Smith has worked on cases with him.

Following his independent investigation, Smith contacted Corporate Securities and brought it to the attention of the district attorney. Many persons were interviewed before a secret indictment was forthcoming from the county grand jury on June 15. The grand jury was to reconvene July 6 or 7.

The Check-Stop office has been closed. It offered a legitimate service to business men, Smith said. The complaint involved his methods of financing the business.

The service was based on a file of over 100,000 names of persons who passed worthless checks. A merchant subscribing to Locke's service contacted the detective agency when he was suspicious about cashing a customer's check. Within minutes, the subscriber was given information to help him avoid cashing bad checks.

SENIOR CITIZENS

846 Masonic

The trip to Heaven on Earth near Santa Cruz was a great success with 92 seniors making the trip in two buses. The weather did not look favorable in the morning, but by noon the sun came out and upon arrival they found it was a gorgeous day. Box lunches were eaten in a large, luscious garden house completely filled with potted begonias of all kinds. This was a truly beautiful place which deserves its name.

The next trip will be a twilight trip to see the Ice Follies on July 28. For particulars, call Minnie at 526-3078. Don't get the idea that all seniors do is play cards and make trips, however. Just come in and see the beautiful things they are making each Wednesday for the coming bazaar or drop in on Fridays and see them at work on community projects.

For information about the center, call 526-1601.

The housewife who mixes two or more types of cleansers in an effort to do a more thorough cleaning job may, without realizing it, be producing an injurious gas, warns Captain Raul Miranda of the Fire Department.

This statement was exemplified in accidents involving two housewives in separate cases. Both were using an ordinary toilet bowl cleaner. Not satisfied with the way it was removing stains, each one added some household bleach and stirred with a brush. One died quickly—the other spent a long time in the hospital.

What happened in the above cases was that a poisonous gas was liberated when the users decided to mix two or more household cleaning agents. When the widely used household bleach (a sodium hypochlorite solution) is combined with an acid or an acid-producing substance, such as toilet bowl cleaner or vinegar, there is a sudden release of a quantity of chlorine gas.

Likewise, when a chlorine bleach is mixed with ammonia, lye, or other alkaline substance, state Captain Miranda, the action will liberate a highly irritating gas.

Captain Miranda points out that the safe rule is to use chemical cleaners as the manufacturer directs on the labels and to make certain that you have adequate ventilation when using bleaching agents.

Allen Connolly, Steve Thomas Honored at Bon Voyage Party

Friends of Allen Connolly and Steve Thomas, Albany High graduates and roommates at San Jose State College, gathered recently to honor them with a surprise bon voyage party.

Hostesses were Chris Elsner, Albany graduate, and Gaye Ekholm, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Ekholm, at whose Richmond home the party was held. Chris and Gaye, a graduate of The Anna Head School, are also roommates at San Jose State. Roger Bylund, Albany High graduate, and the third roommate of the honored guests, helped to plan the party. The Ekholm home was cleverly decorated with flags from countries visited by Gaye and her family during their stay in Europe, and with German street signs leading to a huge cake, baked and decorated by the hostesses, reading: "Steve and Allen—Happy Trip!"

Allen, son of Mrs. Miriam Connolly of 624 Curtis Street, sailed on the S.S. Grooten Beer June 26 for a summer of travel in Europe. He will travel independently, using his Eurail pass to visit many different countries. He expects to return to San Jose State in the fall where he is a member of Spartan Shields and serves on the San Jose State Fairness Committee.

Steve, son of Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Thomas of 962 Ordway Street, will spend the summer in Washington, D.C., as a member of the Quaker Washington Student Seminar, after which he will journey to Sweden, where he will attend the University of Uppsala, as a participant in the State College International Program. He will be returning to San Jose State in the fall of 1966.

Winner of a California State Scholarship upon his graduation from Albany High School, Steve is a member of Tau Delta Phi, honorary scholastic fraternity for men at San Jose. During the past year he has also served as a Justice on the Judiciary Council, a member of the Model United Nations, a counselor for Sparta Camp, and a member of the

Sidewalk Surfing Can Be Dangerous

"Skate-boarding or sidewalk surfing offers fun and thrills to youngsters, but it also promises severe spills and disabling injuries to those who are careless and misuse the equipment," Edward R. Klamm, accident prevention director of the Allstate Insurance Companies, warned today.

"Although the new sport of sidewalk surfing, which involves riding and doing stunts on a small board mounted on skates, is a lot of fun which requires coordination, agility and balance, it also is potentially dangerous when done on sidewalks," Klamm said.

"This is particularly true when improperly used on hills in which precarious speeds are reached and the direction of movement is through cross streets. Balance becomes extremely difficult, so injuries result. The severity of these injuries usually is compounded by the fact that they occur on hard or coarse surfaces. For instance, not long ago a 5 year old New York girl was killed

OUT OF THE COVERS
 (Jottings from the Librarian's Desk)

The weather outside is frightful, but the Albany Library is blooming with new books for summer reading. MY SHADOCK RAN FAST, by Bill Sands, is tops in human interest. His boyhood warped by a sadistic mother, he found himself in inmate of San Quentin in his early twenties, a cell-mate of Caryl Chessman. Sands came under the influence of Warden Duffy, rehabilitated himself, became a successful businessman and is devoting himself to rehabilitating other criminals.

Margery Allingham's THE

MIND READERS combines a bit of science fiction with her usual superbly plotted mystery. In RAMAGE, Dudley Pope, author of THE BLACK SHIP and other sagas of the sea, has challenged C. S. Forester on his own territory and certainly does not come off second best. Admirers of Horatio Hornblower will warm to this exciting story of a young naval lieutenant during the Napoleonic wars, and so will anyone who likes an exciting adventure with a gallant hero.

Last, but not least, is Jan Myrdal's FROM A CHINESE VILLAGE. An anthropologist Myrdal and his photographer wife were allowed by the Peking government to live in a remote village where they interview the people. This is a fascinating account of what it means to be a Chinese peasant.

Mrs. Anne J. Wise, well-known local businesswoman, has rejoined the sales staff of Jerome Blank Realty, Albany Realtor, located at 1530 Solano Ave.

Mrs. Wise has been a resident of this area for 23 years, as she participated in Albany Jr. School and PTA organization while her two children were in attendance.

After two years of specialization in exchanging homes and income properties in the Albany Berkeley area for suburban properties she is rejoining the Blank firm, with its residential building, development, and sales program.

Letters

Editor, The Times:
 The parents of the Albany High School Class of 1965 would like to thank The Albany Times for the publicity and news coverage that the paper has given throughout the year to our preparations for the All-Night Graduation Party.

As publicity chairman of the 1965 senior parents, I have kept The Times informed of the meetings of the various committees working on the party, and we have been very happy to see The Times has kept the public informed on the same thing. Thanks largely to your report a large number of the parents of seniors became involved in the preparations, and this in turn resulted in a very successful All-Night Party. For this, the seniors and their guests at the party could certainly thank The Times.

For the senior parents, thank you once again.

Sincerely,
 Dorothy de Gie

First Building Completed On Jackson Extension

The first building to be constructed on the new Jackson Street extension on the easterly slopes of Albany Hill was completed this week, in the form of a new triplex at 615 Jackson St., which will also serve as the personal residence of its owner, Joe Caradine, owner of C and F Glass Company of Berkeley.

He will reside in the three bedroom, two bathroom lower apartment with his wife, Marilyn, and son Jeffrey.

A single apartment occupies each floor and the two apartments over the owners' apartment contain 1,100 square feet of living area, which includes a central entry hall, large living room, separate dining room, kitchen with breakfast area, master bedroom suite including private bath and dressing room, a second bath with stall shower, and a large second bedroom. The kitchens are completely equipped, including dishwashers and disposals. Each apartment is heated with its own thermostatically controlled forced air central heating system.

An unusual feature of each living room is the attractive prefabricated fireplace set on a stone hearth as a focal point of the room. Private decks and generous windows take advantage of the sweeping view which includes the full panorama from the El Cerrito hills to downtown Oakland.

The building was designed by John M. Hogg, architect, A.I.A., built by Norman A. Jacobson, general contractor, of Albany, and lot development and sale was by Jerome Blank Realty.

In an interview, Blank reported that the building was designed primarily to offer mature families the facilities of modern living normally found only in the finest luxury homes. At the same time, they retain all the advantages of apartment living, including a magnificent view. The building is available for occupancy, and the two 2-bedroom units will be leased by the Property Management Department of the Blank firm, headed by John Larimer.

Kent Pursel Presents $38,906

Supervisor Kent D. Pursel Wednesday presented Administrative Officer James B. Turner with the county's check for $38,906.28, representing Albany's share in county gas tax funds.

The City Council has already earmarked a portion of the funds for the Buchanan street project and the rest for Cleveland work.

Turner said well over $100,000 in county gas tax funds was used in the Buchanan project. The amount Albany receives, he said, is increasing each year. About $41,000 is expected for fiscal 1965-66. Last year's check was for $36,052.35, and the previous year it was $35,202.27.

ALBANY FIRE DEPARTMENT personnel recently instructed members of the fire brigade of The United States Department of Agriculture Western Regional Utilization Laboratory on the use of first aid extinguishers and handling of hose lines. This is in keeping with the local Federal agency's fire safety program. Four sessions were held during the training program. The Laboratory Brigade is under the charge of Brigade Captains P. G. Gustafson and L. P. Popoff. There are 25 members in the Laboratory Fire Brigade. Training was under the supervision of the Fire Prevention Bureau of the Albany Fire Department. In the photo above, Fireman Ken Cochran is shown with members of the lab's fire brigade.

PG&E energy was a bargain 30 years ago...

but PG&E rates are even lower today!

Your PG&E bill is bigger than it used to be because you're using more light, more heat and more appliances. PG&E rates, however, have gone down. The same amount of gas and electricity costs less today than it did in 1935. PG&E energy is still your biggest household bargain.
